HOMECOMING DAY THIS SUNDAY

'Othello' To Be Presented Next Friday In Campus Gymnasium

Only One Performance Is Scheduled; Will Be First Of Several Classic Plays

Othello, a tragic drama by William Shakespeare, will be presented by members of the Saint Mary's College Dramatic Society, in the campus gymnasium, at 8:30 p. m., Friday, May 28.

Dennis Garrehy, who will portray the leading role, Othello, is ably supported by Laurence Gerich in the role of Iago, and Mrs. Yale Meyer appearing as Desdemona.

Mr. Yale Meyer, English Instructor and Dramatic Coach, under whose direction this play is being produced, has also designed the stage set and the costumes which will symbolically background the dramatic action of this play.

Completing the cast for Othello are: Steve Lockett, Cassio; Don Supan, Duke of Venice; Marge Gloria, Bianca; Bill Leiper, Brabantio; Jim Sanguinetta, Gratiano; D. F. Politeo, Lodovico; Dan Callahan, Roderigo; and Jim Donnally, Montano; and Mrs. Kirk Miles, Emilia.

Lighting effects will be handled by Chuck Evans and Rudolph Garbarini. Work on costumes was done by Mrs. Yale Meyer, and Marge Gloria.

This presentation of Othello will be the first of several Shakespearean plays scheduled for production by the Dramatic Society. Mr. Meyer stated that preparations are already underway for several classic dramas which will be staged in the Bay Area.

Due to the fact that the play is scheduled for only one performance, tickets should be purchased as soon as possible. Tickets may be obtained from Bill Kelly, Room 201, Senior Dorm, or Mary Shea, Administration Office, or from any of the various students who will be conveniently located throughout the campus from today until the day of the play.

DESDEMONA — Mrs. Yale Meyer, wife of the Dramatic Society Moderator, who will take the role of Desdemona in Shakespeare's immortal play "Othello." Final rehearsals are being held as the date of presentation, Friday, May 28, draws near.

Guardsmen Can Train for Pay

Train at home while continuing your education and still satisfy demands of the proposed military legislation."

This advice was given yesterday by Captain Thomas A. Montague, regimental adjutant of the 159th Infantry Regiment, California National Guard, and a former Saint Mary's College student, who visited College administrative officers.

Captain Montague will return to the campus next Wednesday to interview students interested in joining the National Guard. The captain will discuss the National Guard program with interested students any time between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in the Administration Building lounge.

In his discussions here yesterday, Captain Montague revealed that thus far in all proposed military legislation for a draft and Universal Military Training, National Guard members are exempt.

"We think we have a good proposition to offer," the National Guard officer explained. He pointed out that the N.G. requires only two hours, one night per week, and 15 days at Camp San Luis Obispo, July 18-31, of each enlistee. For this, officers and men are given one day's pay plus longevity for each two-hour period.

A new unit, a rifle company of the 159th Infantry Regiment, currently is being formed in Walnut Creek. Saint Mary's men will be assigned to this unit.

Veterans who held any of the first three grades for six months or more during the war may be commissioned if they otherwise are qualified.

Poster Club Paints For Drama Society

The Poster Club of St. Mary's College is now busy on posters for the Dramatics Society's coming production "Othello."

The Poster Club, which was formed this semester by a group of Art Society students, has made posters for Frontier Day, Freshmen Thank-you Dance, Rosary Crusade, C.I.C. Picnic, Dr. Knock, and selected posters for the promotion of many other campus activities.

CLUB MEMBERS

Under the able direction of Wayne Henderson, club president, the club has fulfilled its purpose which is to produce professional work to publicize campus activities. Other members of the club, now working, are Harry Harned, Mario Risso and Tom Waters. Brother Cornelius is moderator.

12 Initiated Into Campus Honor Group

At its Wednesday night meeting Alpha Pi Gamma Upsilon, campus honor society, elected officers for the new academic year, initiated twelve into the organization, and set definite plans for the future.

President-elect is Ron McArthur, at present vice-president of the society and who was the sole candidate nominated to the office. Other officers elected at the meeting were Bob Oliver, vice-president; Richard Krause, secretary; and Roy Ottoboni, treasurer.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

New members admitted Wednesday night are Joe Casalnuovo, Robert Hazeltine, Dick Jenevein, Francis Kenny, Richard Krause, Roy Ottoboni, Reynaldo Paladini, Tom Saunders, Mario Sanguinetti (in absentia), Robert Tagg, Martin Wurth and Joe Zanetti.

Immediate plans include furnishing of the society's quarters and sponsoring debates, lectures and dramatics. Most important is the projected orientation for freshmen, now being worked out with Brother Lambert, Dean of the College. Society members will indoctrinate new Gaels next year in the history, traditions and ideals of Saint Mary's.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED

Also organized at the meeting was the standing Activities Committee, which will handle all projects for the new year. On the committee are Joe Casalnuovo, Dick Jenevein, Roy Ottoboni and Joe Zanetti.

Wednesday's initiation brings membership in the society up to a total of thirty-seven.

Students are reminded that, as set forth on Page 28 of the College catalog, they will not be permitted to take their final examinations unless their account with the Treasurer's Office has been cleared or some understanding in each individual case has been reached between the student and the Office.

1948 Gael To Appear on Campus Today

Annual Packed With Features

Ablaze with local color and rich in Saint Mary's tradition, the first postwar Gael will go into circulation sometime today, May 21. Of the 700 copies printed, all but 35 have been reserved. These 35 will be on sale till gone. The rest will be distributed to all who paid the subscription price in full.

Honored at a banquet last night were the staff members and Brother Clement," . . . whose humility and work for students has endeared him in their hearts . . ." the one to whom the issue is dedicated. At the banquet sponsored by Brother Austin, complimentary copies of the Gael were given to those present.

ARTISTIC COLOR

The book itself is enclosed in an artistic cover designed by Jack Christensen. A sketch of the campus on the end sheet of the binding was drawn by Steve Lockett. The contents are divided into a history of the past five years, administration, students, social activities, athletics, and advertising. Each section is prefaced with a picture exemplifying its contents.

The first section after the dedication is devoted to a resume of the year's activities between 1942 and 1947. Handling the overall view of those years are two former COLLEGIAN editors, Stanley Gilliam and Jerry Murphy. The purpose of this section is to fill in the gap between this and the immediately preceding year book.

Following the history is a momento to sophomore Bob Hughes, who died during this semester. Accompanying this momento is a pictorial story of the Graduating Song as sung in spirit by all the Saint Mary's men who made the supreme sacrifice during the war.

After these somber but fitting tribute comes a close-up of the administration, both faculty and student. Featured are pictures of every member of the faculty along with individual snaps of the present studentbody officers. The succeeding individual portraits of the graduates in cap and gown and also of all the undergradates comprise many pages this year.

Campus Quarterly To Appear in Fall

A new magazine will be published quarterly during the 1948-49 school year by the Fourth Estate, stated Dick Cardoza, newly elected president of the Fourth Estate.

The editorial board for this publication includes Walt DeFaria and Bill Kelly, both of whom are presently planning the layout of the new magazine.

Humor, effectively presented, and a definite type literary composition are desired for the new publication. "We want a magazine that jolts," stated Kelly.

Cartoonists, feature writers, and those students with a knack for clever editorial presentation are requested to contact either DeFaria or Kelly so that a complete staff can be available to function in September. A number of assignments will also be handed out at the end of the school year for those interested in publishing a magazine of this type.

Emphasis will be placed on humor and writing with a kick, stated the editorial board. The present format of the BRICK-PILE will be revamped and reorganized to fit the new policies of the board.

Brothers' General Meets Student Body at Assembly

To commemorate the American Centenary of the Christian Brothers, the Most Hon. Brother Athanase Emile, superior general of the Institute, addressed students and faculty members at a special reception last Monday.

Speaking first in French and then in English, Brother Emile commended the work of the Brothers in America. urged students to greater achievement, and thanked Americans for liberating and helping hungry Europeans. Brother Emile also delivered a message of blessing from his Holiness, Pope Pius XII.

GIVES HOLIDAY

Explaining his special authority as chief of the Christian Brothers, the superior general raised his arm in a final gesture and proclaimed a holiday. Student acclaim was unanimous.

Brother Austin and Frank Lazio introduced student speakers, Joe Zannetti and Dan Arzac. Dan, speaking in French, was followed by Brother Robert who summarized his remarks in English for the students.

Brother Eliphus Victor, assistant for the United States; Brother M. Alphonse, secretary to the superior general, and Brother Alfred, provincial visitor, accompanied Brother Emile in his visit here.

SOLEMN MASS SUNG

A solemn high Mass and academic procession preceded the reception. Sacred ministers were the Rev. Albert Duffy, celebrant, the Rec. Louis Miller, deacon, and the Rev. Edmund Moss, subdeacon.

Students from Saint Mary's College High School provided band music for the event.

KHSM Joins Intercollege Air Network

Talent Hunt for Larger Staff On

Station KHSM, the student body radio station, will swing into full scale operations commencing with the fall semester. Combined efforts of the KHSM staff, amateur radio society, and the radio workshop will effect a complete coverage of campus activities.

"Station KHSM's possibilities are unlimited," stated station manager Bob Oliver. "Our trial period is over. The complex operations of the station will be fully integrated. Radio plays, news broadcasts, special events, political debates, prominent guest speakers, commercial sponsors, and many other features will be presented," he emphasized.

KHSM is now an official member of the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System, a nation-wide college organization. Western representatives include University of Southern California, Stanford, College of Pacific, Humboldt tSate, University of Washington and Saint Mary's College. These radio groups plan to form an alliance to foster high standards of collegiate radio broadcasting on the West Coast.

Oliver emphasized that all members of the student body are welcome to try their hand at radio work on KHSM.

"There is a lot of latent talent on the campus," he stated. "We want the students to realize that KHSM is their radio station. There are many phases of radio to suit almost every taste, such as program engineers, announcers, writers, supervisors, publicity and business managers. We have developed a nucleus, but there are places for many more men in our expanding activities."

Father Foudy to Give Grads Sermon

The preacher a the Baccalaureate Mass on Sunday, May 30, will be Reverend John Foudy, Assistant Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Father Foudy was appointed as Assistant Superintendent of Catholic Schools upon his return from Catholic University in Washington where he received his doctorate in education.

Father Foudy is a native San Franciscan. He was ordained in St. Mary's Cathedral in 1934. He is at present in residence at St. Monica's Church in San Francisco.

Banking Training Open to Students

To prepare selected college graduates for officership in the shortest possible time, the Bank of America this week revealed a special acceleration training program to the Placement Bureau in the Office of Public Relations on the campus.

By direct contact with colleges and universities, Bank of America selects the candidates for this training, H. L. Topping of the bank's personnel office disclosed. Candidates must meet two requirements: (1) They must have graduated with a grade of "B" or better, and (2) their extra-curricular activities must indicate those characteristics which would make them good public contact men.

Preference also is given to those students who majored in economics and business administration.

Starting salary is set at $225 per month. Those candidates who successfully advance with the program are guaranteed salary increases at six-month intervals, and at the end of the two-year period an official title.

Saint Mary's students interested in this program are advised to see Bill Bettencourt in the Office of Public Relations for more complete details.

'Atomic Bomb' Subject of Educational Hour; Red and White Game to Be Featured

Saint Mary's College will observe its annual Homecoming Day this Sunday when hundreds of the school's alumni will return to the opened doors of the Little White Academic City.

Proceedings will begin at 9 a.m. with the celebration of Mass in the College Chapel, and will continue through the day with a dinner to begin at 5:45 p.m. terminating festivities.

The Educational Hour, a perennial feature of Homecoming Day, will again play a major role in the day's activities. The subject under discussion will be "The Atomic Bomb." Such authorities as Mr. R. D. Miller, chief engineer of the San Francisco Naval Shipyard; Mr. Wilfred M. Yost, an alumnus of Saint Mary's and formerly associated with Dr. Lawrence of the University of California in work on the bomb; and Dr. James L. Hagerty, also a Saint Mary's alumnus and now head of the School of Liberal Arts at this college, will present various phases of the topic.

Miller, who was present at the Naval experimentation on atomic warfare in the Marshall Islands, will speak on the phase "Atomic Bomb Operations at Bikini." Yost will discuss the "Development of the Atomic Bomb," and Dr. Hagerty will propose the "Ethics of the Use of the Atomic Bomb."

The Educational Hour, to commence at 11:30 a.m., was established some twenty years ago by William R. Lowery and has been carried on in recent years by Judge Leo A. Cunningham, Saint Mary's alumnus and now a resident of San Francisco.

The activities of the day are so planned as to integrate the daily functions—religious, educational, athletic, and social—of a student in a school under Catholic administration.

The Rev. Thomas T. Kane will be the celebrant of the 9 o'clock Mass, and the Rev. Patrick J. Kelley, O.B., will deliver a sermon.

Following the Mass, Brother Austin, F.S.C., President of Saint Mary's College, will deliver a word of welcome to the former men of Saint Mary's.

Edward J. McSweeney, president of the Alumni Association, will preside at the annual meeting at 10:45 a.m.

The University of San Francisco Dons and the Phoenix of Saint Mary's will meet on the latter's home diamond in a game to begin at 1 p.m.

Brother Cornelius will conduct a tour of the Saint Mary's art gallery, site of the noted Keith paintings, at 2:15 p.m.

Presentation of trophies and awards will be held at 2:30. These awards will be given to the outstanding passer, punter, and the best sportsman in a half-hour contest prior to the Red and Blue game. The name of the player chosen as the best sportsman of the time will appear on the J. Tilden Abrams Perpetual Sportsmanship Trophy for the '48 season.

And this year's Gael squad will be divided into Red and White teams to show its ability on the gridiron in an intra-squad match slated for 3 o'clock.

Following the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by the Rev. Victor Wilkeimeyer, a dinner at 5:45 will close the day's events. Mr. William G. Fischer, class of '32, will act as toastmaster. Speakers will include Brother Henry, F.S.C., moderator of the Alumni; Mr. Joe Verducci, head Saint Mary's football coach; and Mr. Arthur M. Mott.

Fourth Estate Pick President, Debate Powers

Effort to Boss Publications Fails

Heated discussion keynoted debate on the acceptance of a new constitution and new officers for the Fourth Estate, college journalism society, at a meeting held last week.

Most controversial issue under discussion was whether or not the Fourth Estate could or should bring all St. Mary's publications under its immediate jurisdiction by constitutional wording.

Although it was generally agreed that all campus writers should be members of the Fourth Estate and that some influence over publications should be exercised, Dick Desmond and Dan Arzac fought the constitution as worded on grounds that it was against the student constitution. They recommended the constitution be returned to committee and be reworded to comply with existing regulations.

SHOULD INFLUENCE PUBLICATIONS

The opposing faction led by Bill Kelly, insisted that, though it should, the Fourth Estate, as such had no influence on publication policies. However, it was generally agreed that the organization had no power to do so at the present time.

The constitution was sent back to the committee by a majority vote.

CARDOZA NEW PREXY

Dick Cardoza, the new Collegian sports editor, was elected president of the Fourth Estate for the coming year. Other officers selected at the election were Dick Escajeda, vice-president, and Bob Pringle, secretary.

Due to the fact that duties of the treasurer (as the yet to be accepted constitution requires) must exercise an extremely important position, his election was postponed until someone completely qualified and dependable could be selected for the position ex-officio.

The traditional Fourth Estate banquet was cancelled by a majority decision because of the short space of time remaining in the current school year.

Summer Camp Opens June 27

Once again St. Mary's will be the site of the annual Boys' Summer Camp conducted by the Christian Brothers beginning June 27 and ending August 8. Brother Bernard, acting as camp director, will be assisted by Tom Conlan, veteran camp leader.

Only boys between the ages of 9 to 16 may go and each boy will be limited to only two weeks in order to accommodate the large number of requests being sent to the college. Boys are to be grouped according to age and physical fitness with each group having its own program and activities. Some of the events will include swimming, hiking, tennis, football, baseball, picnics and camp fires.

Brother Bernard stressed the fact that at all times there will be supervisors guiding the boys. For activities like swimming, life guards will be on duty constantly. Student Brothers and St. Mary's College students will serve as counselors, one for every ten campers.

Students of St. Mary's College:

I wish to express my deep and sincere appreciation for your splendid cooperation in connection with the ceremonies of last Monday to show our respect for the Superior General of the Institute, the Most Honored Brother Athanase Emile. This is one more clear indication of the fine spirit which prevails in the Student Body, something of which we may all well be proud. For this, my sincere thanks to you, Men of St. Mary's.

Signed,
BROTHER AUSTIN,
President of St. Mary's College.

Thanks Given for Mass Vestments

The beautiful set of red vestments, a donation of Mr. Sam Kline, custodian of the gymnasium, were worn for the first time on Pentecost Sunday. They were made by Mrs. Jess Hoeslick of the St. Mary's Guild.

Freshmen News Reveals Plans Already Laid for Next Year

Gene Klinger, Don Farrarse and Bernon Erickson played a round of golf (pee-wee golf) last week in Oakland. Gene came out the victor and Don had the distinction of placing last.

Joaquin Acosta and Bud Pitts for the past three weeks have been earning good wages working for a lady in Orinda.

Now that good weather is here Frosh boys may be seen taking sun baths on top of the dormitory. The results have been a few good tans and quite a lot of burned skin.

The machinery has started moving in the planning of the Freshmen "Welcome Dance" to be held early next year. Al Johnston, newly appointed social chairman for the class of '51, is deeply engrossed in the preparations for the dance.

At the same time it was announced that the plans for the dance were being drawn, it was also announced that Leo Cunningham was appointed by Sophomore President - elect George Bertain to be chairman of the initiation committee next year. Let's have something good for the initiation next year, Leo.

Co-chairman of the welcoming committee for the incoming Frosh next year will be Bob Osgod and Ed Lammerding.

John (Papa) McCarty has been ranting for the past four months to have a pair of skiis that belong to his roommate sent down from Sacramento. Now that the much wanted skiis are here they have not been picked up. Aren't they important anymore, John?

Tom O'Neil was elected secretary of the Sacramento Club Tuesday afternoon.

There was some discussion as to whether he was elected by a unanimous vote or by Tom O'Neil's vote. Tom was the only candidate running so a vote was not taken.

Bud Pelissier and his fiancee are preparing for the day when they will be married. Good luck, Bud.

Many Saint Mary's boys have been seen on the sunny banks of Lake Temescal recently. Could it be the sun, the swimming, or the pretty girls that attract the boys. George Cuyler is one of the frequent visitors to the little lake.

In a Frosh baseball game recently Mel Knezovich sent no less than sixteen men to the dugout via the strikeout route.

In another Frosh game Don Farrarse was the winning pitcher of a no-hitter. However, the little portsider succeeded in walking sixteen men.

Our hats are off to Walt DeFaria for making it possible for Saint Mary's to have a yearbook this year. Without his courage, effort and determination the 1948 Gael would not be a realty today.

Have you ever rode a wave at Laguna Beach? If not, ask Herman Schmidt to give you the facts about it.

Jim Lahey received a phone call from a Holy Names girl asking for a date. Jim politely refused saying it was necessary to go home that week end. Jim, you should be more considerate toward les femmes who enjoy your company.

Why is Tom "The Cat" Thorpe always making noises like the purring of a cat? What's the scoop, Tom?

Grads Leave Monday For Annual Retreat

With their senior final examinations behind them, twenty members of the graduating class will leave the campus on next Monday evening to make a three-day retreat at the Jesuit Retreat House at Los Altos. The retreat will be the first event on the Senior Week program which will conclude with graduation on Sunday, May 30.

The practice of making a retreat at the Jesuit Retreat House was reintroduced by Father Moss, student chaplain, upon his appointment to Saint Mary's. So far, under his direction, three groups of seniors have made the retreat. The three-day period of recollection will begin at 6:30 on Monday evening and will conclude on Thursday morning. Any upper division student who can make the retreat is invited to do so. Reservations should be made with Jerry, Paulsen, Room 216, Center Hall, before Monday.

Have you made up your mind on what you'll do when you graduate this June? If not, consider the opportunity available to you in the Aviation Cadets.

Few jobs anywhere can match this offer. When you win your wings and a Second Lieutenant's commission, you're paid as high as $336 per month to start. The training you get before and after you're commissioned is recognized as the world's finest—and it equips you for a well-paid lifetime career in military or commercial aviation.

You're eligible for appointment to the Cadets if you're single, between 20 and 26½ years old, and have completed at least one-half the requirements for a degree from an accredited college or university (or pass an equivalent examination).

Talk the program over with men in your class who have been Aviation Cadets. And for full details, ask at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station. Why not drop in today and discuss it?

Review Of Year Shows "Big" Events

Phelan Resignation Top Story Of the Year; Verducci Second

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 20, 1948

The year started out with the announcement that Bob Hope, Jerry Colonna, Vera Vague and Les Brown and his orchestra would appear on the campus April 9. A crowd of two thousand was expected to fill the gymnasium. Later that same evening Hope and his troupe were to give a benefit performance for the Saint Mary's Library fund in Orinda.

The Executive Council had a relatively quiet meeting that week. A new schedule was arranged so that more representatives could attend these meetings. It was announced that the Saint Mary's Dramatic Society would stage the comedy, "Dr. Knock," with Bill Kelly in the lead roll.

That week also saw Peter Siguenza receive the presidency of the International Relations Club. Raymond Arata, '28, was appointed by Governor Warren to serve on the California State Board of Education.

Brother Bertram, director of Student Brothers, was transferred from Saint Mary's to Christian Brothers' High School in Sacramento where he assumed the principal's post.

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 27, 1948

The second week of the semester opened with the announcement that KHSM would begin their broadcasting schedule March 1. An inaugural broadcast with many radio stars performing officially opened KHSM's radio activity. The date for the Bob Hope show was changed from March 9 to March 16, thus causing a mixup in the Erie Oge's plans to have Saint Patrick Day festivities on the campus.

It was also announced that week that the annual Press Convention would be held on the campus April 17. That week also featured a banquet held in honor of Coach James Phelan, who had been elected to the office of President of the American Football Coaches Association.

WEEK OF MARCH 5, 1948

The big news of that week was the presentation of the play "Dr. Knock" by the Saint Mary's Drama Society. The play was a great success, both financially and in audience appreciation.

The Hearst Oratorical Contest also got its start that week when Dr. Louis LeFevre announced that candidates, to represent Saint Mary's in the annual speech contest, would begin rehearsals. Death came near to the students when Bob Hughes, 22-year-old sophomore student, succeeded to a heart and kidney ailment after a valiant battle. Students donated money for Masses to be offered in Hughes' home town.

The APGU (Honor Society) got its post-war start by initiating new members into its restricted group.

But by far the biggest news item was the discontinuance of the Brickpile, campus literary magazine. At a dramatic Executive Council meeting, where tempers flared at times, the Brickpile was voted out of existence because of an insufficient amount of funds in the student treasury. Dick Desmond, editor of the magazine, said he would put the quarterly out with his own money. He was supported by Pat Henderson, who also vowed support to the traditional magazine.

WEEK OF MARCH 12

The Bob Hope show came into prominence, and it lived up to its advance billings. Martha Stewart, Jerry Colonna, Les Brown and his orchestra, and finally Bob Hope gave a grand performance in the gymnasium. The benefit show in Orinda was a financial success, but some comment was raised afterwards about the brevity of Bob Hope's performance.

Don Rauber copped the first prize Oliver Essay ward of $75. He was followed by Dan Arzac, who won $50(and by Brother Gregory, who received $25 for his essay.

Some excitement also prevailed over campus activities. Collegian writer Bill Stout proved himself a hero when he rescued the Oakland Tribune's drama critic from a maniac, who menaced the women the night of the "Dr. Knock" performance.

Honorary degrees were to be conferred on five Catholic educators. This event was not to take place until April 1.

WEEK OF MARCH 19, 1948

One of the biggest news stories ever to hit the Saint Mary's campus came that week when James Phelan and Marty Kordick announced their resignations as football coaches at the Moraga institute.

Phelan and his assistant departed for a warmer climate in the south, where it was reported he was to receive $30,000 for his job as coach of the Los Angeles Dons.

The Executive Council woke up long enough to say that campus clubs would receive a "face lifting." Ed Arnold, sophomore representative, asked that clubs be made to respond to their purposes, or be made to dissolve as a student function with student support.

WEEK OF APRIL 2, 1948

The second biggest news story of the year came when it was announced that Joe Verducci, prep football coach at Polytechnic High School in San Francisco, would assume duties as head coach at Saint Mary's college. He was to have as assistants his former helpers in the Coast Guard, George Arabian and George Poppin.

Spirits went up all over the campus as a wave of optimism came with the exchange of football coaches. Most football players seemed to be pleased with the appointment of Verducci as head coach.

Dr. Charles DeKonnick, of Laval University in Quebec, gave his final lecture at Saint Mary's. He spoke on the danger of Communism, and how that danger could be overcome by a more understanding view of Marxist Doctrine. Dr. DeKonnick was well received on the campus, as indicated by the number of students attending his intellectual lectures.

The "unbacked" Brickpile was also to make its appearance that week, but was delayed by a mixup in mailing schedules.

Seven Catholic leaders were conferred with honorary degrees from the college. The convocation was held in Aquinas Hall Lounge.

Student's eyesight was also strained that week, for midterm examinations were to begin shortly.

WEEK OF APRIL 16

The annual Press Convention was the big story of the week. With some 160 students in attendance, the convention was one of the most successful ever held. Featured speaker was John T. Wallace, public relations manager for the San Francisco Chronicle. He spoke on the "New Kind of Newspaperman." Also in attendance were Marco Smolich, erstwhile Collegian sports editor, Jerry Murphy ex-editor of the Collegian, and Bob Fouts, who is now on the KYA sports desk.

The Reflector of the Academy of Presentation in San Francisco walked away with three trophies. It was voted the best high school newspaper among those submitted to the convention.

A committee was chosen in the Executive Council to revise the constitution of the Associated Students. Dan Arzac was appointed chairman of this committee, and immediately began working on a constitution which would prove more "workable" to the students.

Brickpile sales hit a new low despite the advance publicity. Dick Desmond commented that he wished more interest had been accorded his publication.

WEEK OF APRIL 23, 1948

A strange coincidence occurred that week when it was announced that Walter P. Reuther, youthful president of the Auto Workers Union, would receive a Doctor of Laws degree from Saint Mary's College. Reuther had been shot by an unknown assailant a short while after he had accepted the invitation to address graduating seniors. It was at commencement exercises that he was to receive the degree.

Student campaign fever began to rise as it was announced that three men would vie for the job as student body president. Val McKeever, Jack Slaven, and Lou Desmond began one of the hottest campaigns in Saint Mary's history. Every political trick was employed by the three men to secure various group votes. Slaven presented a novel slant in campaigning by having posters written in different languages.

WEEK OF APRIL 30, 1948

A sum of $2000 was presented to the college library by the Saint Mary's Club that week. The check was given at a banquet held on the campus. The club officers promised that $3000 more would be donated in the near future.

The campus became relatively quiet as students waited for the election date to come around. However, political machines were merely waiting for the right moment before they would begin a really earnest campaign.

The Junior Prom and the Frontier Day Celebrations were also high on the list of campus activities. The Junior Prom was a financial success, while Frontier Day was beset by a number of difficulties. However, the sponsors of Frontier Day, the Sacramento Club, still made enough money to clear expenses and donate funds to charity.

WEEK OF MAY 7, 1948

Val McKeever barely squeezed by Jack Slaven to win the student presidency by 50 votes. In a record vote Peter Siguenza won the vice-presidency, Tom McNamara the Treasurer's post, and Dan Arzac swept into the Secretary's job. The election results surprised very few, since campus speculation held that these men would be certain to win. The race for president, however, was much closer than had been expected.

The Executive Council voted to invest money in United States government bonds. A precedent was set for other Ex-Councils to follow. It was decided that $200 each year would build a substantial reserve for future students.

The Dramatic Society began to function again; this time with Shakespear's Othello. A huge set was erected in the gymnasium. Dennis Garrehy was selected to take the lead, while Bud Gerich took the supporting role of Iago.

The 11th annual California High School speech congress met on the campus to pick outstanding orators among high schools in California.

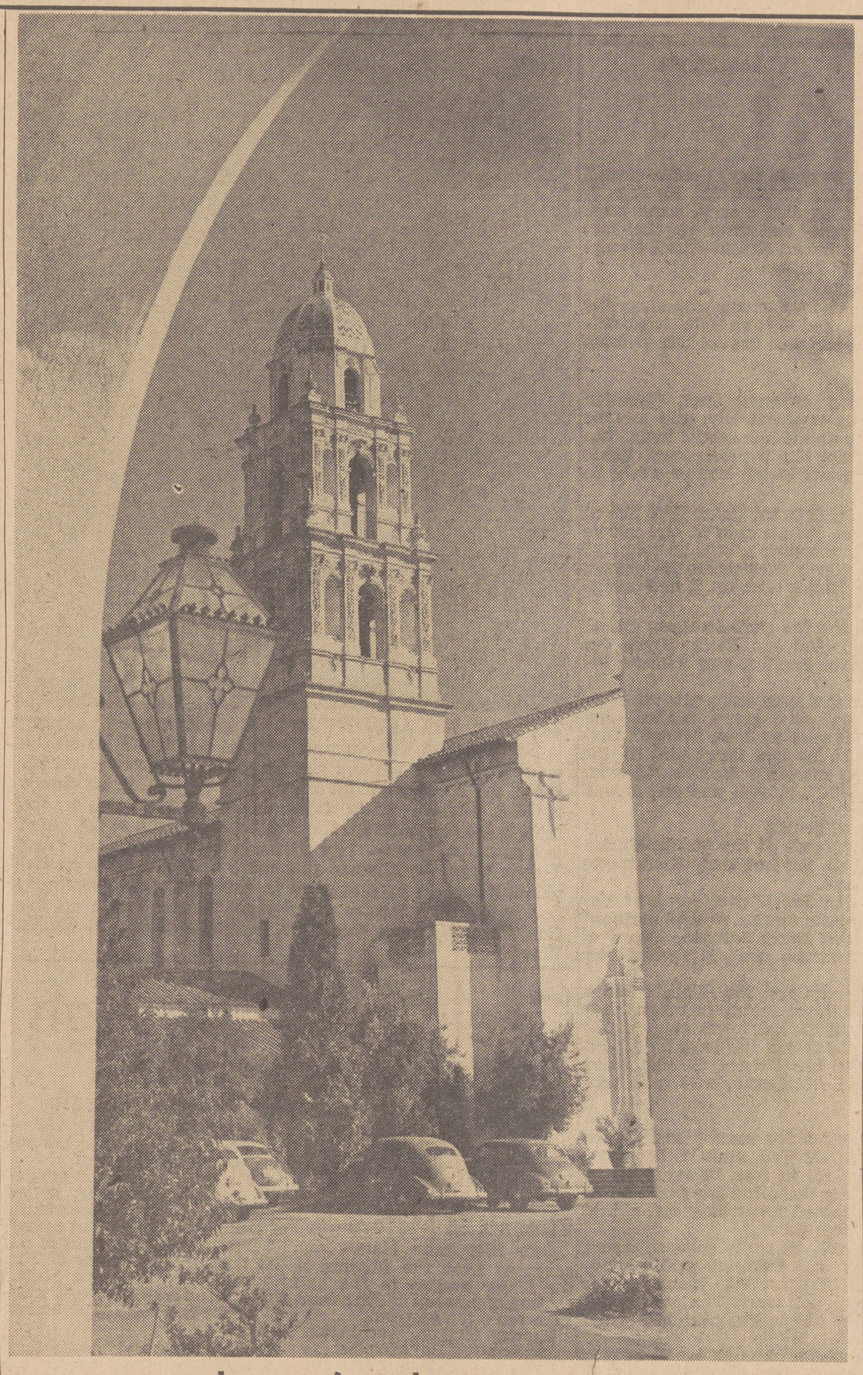
WEEK OF MAY 14, 1948

The Most Honorable Brother Athanase Emile, superior general of the Christian Brothers, paid a visit to the Saint Mary's campus. He addressed students from the chapel steps, at which time he announced that a school holiday would be held Monday, May 14. Brother Athanase Emile was on a tour of Brothers' schools in the United States as part of the centenary celebrations.

The Gael yearbook was to make its appearance soon. After months of work, Walt DeFaria, Gael editor, said that the magazine would be ready for the students the latter part of the coming week.

The office of the Dean announced that new courses would be offered students the next semester. Journalism and Physical Education comprised the major additions to the curricula.

Another announcement from the office of Public Relations said that Homecoming Day would be held that coming Sunday on the Moraga campus. Some two thousand alumni were expected to come back to their Alma Mater.



Presidents' Alumni Message

It is trite to say that you are welcome here today; but the time-honored and customary formality is most fitting and not to be dispensed with.

You may be assured, one and all, that your return here for Homecoming is a cause of joy and understandable gladness to all of us on this campus.

We like to see those who possibly come back for the first time in year; those who can come to us only on Homecoming Day, and the others, the greater number, with whom we are more closely in contact throughout the year.

There can be a symbolic meaning to Homecoming. In the legend of Antaeus, that giant regained his strength in combat with the enemies on renewing his contact with Mother Earth.

The former student by returning, if only for one day, to his Alma Mater should be renewed spiritually for the battle of life.

At any rate, this day, if nothing else, should serve to recall many things, some of them even of inspirational value, and all interesting.

Then too, the Alumni and the College will feel closer, and this will be all to the good.

BROTHER AUSTIN, President
Saint Mary's College.

Centenary Celebration 'Magnificent and Jubilant'

Amid the splendor and Liturgical trappings of a Solemn Pontifical Mass, the Centenary Celebration began in San Francisco last Sunday.

Similar celebrations in Los Angeles, Sacramento and Fresno had been observed, honoring the Brothers of the Christian Schools and their Centenary.

This celebration in San Francisco climaxed those in other cities with its magnificence and jubilant theme.

100 YEARS

The Centenary marked the observance of one hundred years of successful teaching by the Christian Brothers here in America. This celebration had been delayed three years, due to the war.

The Christian Brothers landed in this country at Baltimore in 1845. In 1868, San Francisco first received the Brothers, who founded their first college in the West, on Mission Road.

Opening the Celebration at Saint Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco, His Excellency, the Most Reverend John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, presided over a Solemn Pontifical Mass, celebrated by the Right Reverend Monsignor Harold E. Collins, Pastor of St. Cecilia's Church, in San Francisco.

COMBINED CHOIRS

The Mass was chanted by combined choirs of Mont La Salle and the Student Brothers of Saint Mary's College. The sermon was delivered by the Right Reverend Monsignor Richard H. Hammond, Dean of Clergy, Alameda County.

At the close of the Mass, the Archbishop paid affectionate tribute to the Christian Brothers of California.

BUFFET LUNCH

From the Cathedral, the Brothers proceeded to Sacred Heart College, where they attended a buffet luncheon in the Faculty Residence.

The guest of honor and speaker of the occasion was the Most Honored Brother, Athanase Emile, Superior General of the Christian Brothers.

The Superior General traveled from Rome to the United States about a month ago, and so arranged his schedule to be in San Francisco for the occasion.

MANY HARDSHIPS

In his address, he related the hardships undergone by the Brothers in Europe. He paid tribute to the pioners of the order, here in this country, as well a to those who have carried on their work.

The Most Honorable Brother expressed his gratitude to God for the sparing of the Christian Brothers during the last war.

"This country has been singularly blessed by Almighty God, as evidenced in its great abundance and progress and America has not been neglectful of her spiritual heritage."

CIVIC DINNER

That evening, a civic dinner was held at the Fairmont Hotel. The dinner was a magnificent climax to the day of jubilee and thanksgiving.

Over a thousand civic and religious leaders, alumni and friends crowded into the "Gold Room," where the banquet took place.

Toastmaster was Robert J. McAndrews, '32, from Hollywood. Principal speaker of the evening was Andrew F. Bourke, '04, first editor of the COLLEGIAN and anw a prominent attorney in San Francisco.

He voiced a fitting tribute to the accomplishments of the Christian Brothers, from the days of its founder, St. John Baptist De La Salle, down to the current endavors of the Brothers, here in California.

New Charter Voted In at College Meet

All Measures Opposed by Dons

Led by Saint Mary's and Santa Clara, the Catholic Intercollegiate Council in its meeting at Colleg of the Holy Names last Friday beat down formidable opposition from the University of San Francisco and rewrote its constitution.

The two-hour meeting was marked by heated debate on every issue, debate of a type characterized by CIC Representative Dan Arzac as "deliberate obstructionism smelling of casuistry."

PROCEDURE QUESTIONED

Because the old charter provided neither for by-laws, amend vided neither for by-laws, amendment or eatification, action was instituted by Barbara Haren of Holy Names to re-draft the document. The new constitution was drawn up by Mike Hennessy of Santa Clara, plus a considerable number of changes made in meeting.

Arzac's motions to annul the old constitution and to limit voting to the seven CIC representatives passed. From then on, in spite of question and debate at every turn by two Don delegates, all the proposed changes were approved.

IRC Recaps Year's Work

New Leaders To Be Chosen

In keeping with its purpose to enrich the cultural and academic interest of students in national and international affairs, the IRC met last Thursday to elect its new members for the Committee of Control for next year and to officially close one of its most successful years in the college.

Under the guidance of its present committee of control, Ed Arnold Dan Arzac, Tony Pohhepny, Don Rauber, Herb Reynolds, Pete Siguenza, and the moderateor, Brother Matthew, the IRC presented four guest speakers, conducted radio programs, and took a poll of students' opinion on the Marshall Plan.

The four guest speakers who appeared before the club throughout the year were: Mr. Andre Rousselet, French Vice-Consul in San Francisco. He spoke on "The Economic Situation in France and the Marshall Plan."

Dr. Theodore B. Frank, formerly of Austria, where he was with the Secretariat and Legal Department of the Austrian Credit Institute, now professor of political science at USF. Dr. Frank addressed the club on "Germany and the Marshall Plan."

Bay Alumni to Fete New Grid Mentor

Coach Joe Verducci will be honored at a banquet next fall by the Alameda-Contra Costa County unit of the Alumni Association, President Ed Moran announced yesterday.

The affair will be held on Thursday night, August 26. A site will be selected by a committee handling the arrangements and consisting of Bob Fleitz, chairman; Joe Shally, Matt Higgins, Fern Skoubye, Rudy Rasmussel and Jim Lorigan.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

BY MARCO SMOLICH '46
EX-SPORTS EDITOR
SAINT MARY'S COLLEGIAN

May 17, 1948

PETE PETERSEN, Sports Editor,
SAINT MARY'S COLLEGIAN,
SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE, CALIF,.
DEAR PETE:

Eighteen months have slipped away on the calendar since I dared scribble some sportsstuff for the COLLEGIAN. My days of commenting on athletic situations at aint Mary's, some good, some mighty sad, have "long done gone" and never was that fact more realized than when you asked for an alumni—strict alumni—column for your Homecoming Day edition.

FROM THE SACRAMENTO REGION

Well, you can find a Saint Mary's man at any stop along the road to any place, believe it or not, and it is virtually impossible to cover them all. So we'll hang around this Capitol City vicinity, Pete, and see what happens. . .

GAELS IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Sticking to baseball, but at a different level, Christian Brothers High School anneved the mythical city title for the third straight year with Ray Curry at the managerial helm. The man called "Hands" now looks more like a professional tackle than a college end, and the first gents to tell him so would be Ray Desimone and Gus Mota.

The former, Director of Athletics at Grant Union High School and Technical College, sparkled for the Phoenix in the middle 30's and last year demonstrated his coaching talents by whipping Johnny Vergez's varsity with his North Sacramento Merchants. Mota, who played basketball under "Dutch" Conlan, is now coaching the sport at Grant.

Remember the man who brought the sixth-stringers out of obscurity by organizing the Flying A's? It's Jimmy Flynn I'm speaking of, my boy, and old "Sailor Legs" is now Athletic Director at Sacramento High.

About 35 miles from here there is a little grape-growing community—Lodi—which has produced some sharp football and baseball teams. Much of the credit goes to John "Pongo" Gianonni, one of Madigan's solid ends. He and Curry met on the diamond twice this year, with each gaining a decision. Big John doesn't like to be reminded of a WSC halfback who ran around him like a "hoop around a barrel."

SOME COACH; SOME GO INTO BUSINESS

Owen Henson, the unassuming Swede of the Strader-Phelan regimes, has decided to quit pro ball, but has made Sacramento his home and real estate his business.

It's nice to recall, Pete, that Dick Jarvis' prep coach at Modesto was Ernie Jorge, who is currently serving as first assistant at College of the Pacific. Meanwhile, Harry Aronson, winner of the CYO trophy during the 1939 Fordham game, is pigskin tutor at Placerville JC.

Skipping back more than 20 years ago, the Phoenix had a whale of an outfit, featuring Al Westlake, speedy infielder; Andy House, the player who used to cook his bat in oil every night; Ralph King, twice victorious over California and loser on a 5-hit effort to the St. Louis Cardinals; Leo Rooney of the famed Rooney-Underhill combination, and Bill Doran, who calls balls and strikes for the PCL.

WE WON AND LOST

Flipping the pages of time back a few more years, do you remember that 127-0 debacle with Cal? Well, Andy "O Sole Mio" Lagomarsino was there, very much so; in fact, he says that he played guard on his back most of the time. And five years before that even Elwood "Kettle" Wirts started a catching career that eventually carried him to the Chicago Cubs.

In the 30's when the Galloping Gaels really galloped among the nation's best, Sacramento sent the following gridders Moragaway: Garry Vivaldi, Maurice McCaffrey, Mike Leonard, Carlo Dallosta and Nick Culjis. And let's not forget Marion "Poolie" Snead, Eddie Mills and Wilbur Yost of the Phoenix during that era.

The guys who chased the horsehide when it wasn't in play and carried the bats from clubhouse to field are also well represented in the persons of Gordon McGrath, president of the Sacramento Saint Mary's College Association, Andy Franzoia and Stan Gilliam.

Bhristian Brothers High School is starting a tennis team, thanks to the efforts of Bert Callen who has already acquired the pessimistic attitude of a coach.

Well, Pete, there's bound to be more. I've left many out, I know, because I've been unable to contact some of the grads. But they'll all be at Saint Mary's for Homecoming Day (you can bet one of the COLLEGIAN'S two decent typewriters) and there'll be yarns spun from here to there and back again.

Thanks for the privilege of writing these lines about former Red and Blue athletes, Pete, and lots of luck to the Gaels—past, present and future.

Sincerely,
MARCO SMOLICH.

Gael Footballers Final Scrimmage Highlights Alumni Festivities

Verducci's 'T' Unveiled; Trophies to Be Awarded

By BOB FITZGERALD

Come this Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, 'Lil Joe Verducci, George Arabian and George Poppin put their necks on the chopping block as they show off their products to the Alumni and the Saint Mary's Club in the Red-White final scrimmage.

Since the Alumni and the St. Mary's Club are going to view proceedings with the proverbial hawkeye, 'Lil Joe and crew are really going to give out.

FIRST CLASS REFS

Two sets of first class, top-flight officials will keep the affair under control. Among the officials will be four old-time grads, "Dutch" Conlan, "Foghorn" Bill Fischer, Red Scheffin and Charlie Heinbockel.

Motion pictures will be taken as well as presentation of trophies. These trophies include the William "Dick" Fitzgerald trophy for the best passer. The James Smith Trophy for the day's outstanding punter, the J. Tilden Abram trophy for the player exhibiting top sportsmanship, and a new trophy donated by an anonymous alumni, the Toby Hunt Linesman Memorial trophy.

The punting and passing trophies will be awarded after the participants conclude their three passes and punts.

The sportsmanship and best linesman trophies will be awarded after the game.

"Gorgeous George" Arabian is rumored that he will pass out gardenias to the women, but beat-up pansies to all delinquent Alumni members.

TEAM IS RAGGED

Summing up last week's scrimmage, Mentor Joe says that his boys looked ragged. Joe and his assistants, however, foot the blame for that condition. Sez Joe, "We have been working them pretty hard and mid-week scrimmage tend to tire the boys. They'll look much better next Sunday."

HONEST ANALYSIS

"Our backs are good, and man for man they'll hold their own with anyone. Our first string line is good but if any of them suffer injuries, God help us.

"Unbiased observers have told me after inspecting other teams on the coast, that, to them, Saint Mary's has shown the most enthusiasm and has displayed the best tackling. But they also remind me that the squad lacks polish. Giving the squad polish will come when the opening whistle sets us off in September. I think the morale, as it stands now, is good. Everyone is giving his all to find a berth and we endeavor to give him a chance."

CAPTAINS UNCERTAIN

Captains have not been selected for Sunday's tussle, but "the quarterbacks will probably have the honor."

NO MIRACLE TEAM

No one expects miracles. No one expects a "No loss" season. The students are behind the team and the coaches for the first time in quite awhile. Let's get the Alumni and the backers back of them also.

There's the whistle.
Football is here again.
Wave the banners!

East Doffs Hats To Galloping Gaels

NEW YORK, Nov. 17, 1930.—California, here we come, bowing, and bowing and bowing!

Along with the broken boys of fair Fordham, the east doffed hats today to the vast orchards of California, the mining camps, its forests, chugging wells of oil, the docks and wharves of San Francisco bay and every region that sent its brawny sons to make up the football team of St. Mary's college.

From Maine to Mineola, they courtesied to "Slip" Madigan's blue ghosts, who slipped through the fog and murk and mud of the Polo Grounds Saturday afternoon to turn back the New York eleven, the one and only undefeated, untied eastern major eleven, 20-12. Ghosts, indeed, for like some eerie, superhuman agents of the unconquerable they came from behind in a second half rally and "graveyarded" the proud Ram for the first time in two years.

Like phantoms of the night, Bud Toscani, Dick Boyle, Fred Stennett and Bill Beasley passed and floated and moved like spectres in a ghastly parade before the paralyzed New Yorkers as the coast ghosts dashed to victory through wisps of fog and over hunks of mud.

(Note: There is hardly a Saint Mary's man, young or old, who will not remember the reception given that 1930 team when they arrived back in the bay area with victory and Rameses IV, the Fordham Ram.)

Bill Fischer—An all-time Saint Mary's Gael is Bill Fischer who played a great game of guard on the 1930 team which upset the Fordham apple cart 20-12 and electrified the nation.

Jerseys of Gael All-Americans to Be Retired

Immediately prior to the Red-White game kickoff on Sunday, the jerseys of the five Gael all-Americans will be officially retired.

Norman "Red" Strader, number 4, made all-American in 1925; Lawrence Bettencourt, number 20, made all-American 1927; Franklin "Ike" Franklin, number 75, made all-American 1928; George Ackerman, number 31, made all-American 1929; Herman "Squirmin" Wedemeyer, number 11, made all-American 1945.

Coach Joe Verducci stated that that some prominent alumni, as yet unnamed, would be called upon to officially accept the five red jerseys from senior manager, Fred Mullen.

The presentation wil be aired to the vistiting alumni and public over the public address system.

Gaels Hold Univ.' Of Nebraska Hitless

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 11, 1939.—A "no hit" performance was turned in by three reserve St. Mary's College hurlers last night at Seals' Stadium as the Gaels easily proved their superiority over the Missouri Valley champions from Nebraska University, 9 to 3.

The visitors were helpless at the shoots of Bud Merrill, Frank Maderas and Emmett O'Neill. Working three frames apiece, they fanned 20 Cornhuskers and not a Nebraskan hit a ball out of the infield. Their three runs were scored on errors.

FOUTS REPORTS:

BY BOB FOUTS EX-'43
SPORTS EDITOR
KYA, SAN FRANCISC

"St. Mary's man, huh," was the Cal Kid's taunt. "Well, what did you do? Play football? Or were you in the band."

I resented that snide remark because it slighted one of the most illustrious phases of Moraga athletic history—the college's remarkable contribution to the ranks of professional BASEBALL.

Since the days of the Brickpile, St. Mary's diamonds have successfully spawned many a star for the profitable national pastime.

One of the most productive of these times, was the era of the Earl of Moraga—the taciturn Earl Sheely, Boston Red Sox scout, and Phoenix coach. Sheely assembled some fine Phoenix nines, won a CIBA pennant, and graduated an amazing number of patalooned performers into the professioal ranks.

PHOENIX IN PRO BALL

Just look at today's box score in the major leagues. That "WP—Johnson" is none other than "Lefty" EARL JOHNSON. A prewar reliefer, Johnson is now taking his regular turn and winning for Joe McCarthy's Boston Red Sox.

Now take a squint at the other end of the winning battery for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Catcher—EDDIE FITZGERALD. Eddie a Sheely student, progressed quickly from Sacramento to the Bucs as one of the highest priced rookies of the season.

But you don't have to go that far from home. Right here in the Coast League, FIVE of the eight clubs boast St. Mary's grads.

ONE MORE CHANCE

Four of these are ex-big leaguers, one of whom might get another chance. He's JACK TOBIN, third-sacker for the Seals. Although he booted away a war-time job with the Red Sox, he learned his lesson the hard way in the Texas League, and has settled down for O'Doul admirably with a healthy .293 batting average. Looks like he's on his way up again.

Another ex-Phoenix apparently making good with a "last chance" is EMMETT O'NIEL, with the Sacramento Solons. Emmett wild-pitched his way from the Red Sox to the minors. Looks like he may have found himself with Orengo.

The other two ex-major, ex-Moraga men are currently among the leaders on the Coast League Hit Parade.

FRANKIE KELLEHER, who once wore a Cincinnati uniform, is second in league home runs with 10, and third in RBI's with 40 for Hollywood.

At Sacramento, former White Sox, JOE MARTY is among the top sluggers with a powerful .342.

A Sheely-coached double play combo has been split as wide as possible in the Coast circuit. Down on the border, RAY TRAN is holding down his old short-patch spot for San Diego, and hitting a respectable .267.

Up north, his old partner, LEE MOHR, is pinch-hitting and playing the outfield for his former coach and the Seattle Rainiers. He's the most successful clutch hitter in the league, heading the pack with an astronomical .625.

There are many others, (just ask Louie Guisto), from triple A down to the bushes, who learned their "rappin', runnin', and retrievin' at St. Mary's.

THE BIG STICK AND A DIPLOMA

But for the undergrad, who is wavering between graduation and the glowing promises of the silver-tongued scout, a word of caution.

Baseball is a sometime thing. Make sure you have that big stick, that diploma, when you go into pro ball. Chances are if you sweat it out now, you'll know a lot more about inside baseball and front office finances, and thus command a better price. Also you'll have the assurance that come sore arm or bad knee you won't wind up selling hot dogs and pop.

Aside from that, play ball, and we'll probably be chalking up the RIB's for you, right along with the Fitzgeralds, the Kellehers, and the other fabulous Phoenix.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Lou Peresyni, who came to Saint Mary's last Fall to fill in at the trainers post vacated by Billy Fallon, will be the instructor for the new Physical Education which will be installed next year, and which will be directly responsible to the Dean's Office.

Peresyni brings with him a stolid record. He received his M.A. in Physical Education at the University of Pittsburgh, and then spent 12 years at a Pennsylvania high school teaching various subjects, and coaching ALL of the school's sports.

During the last war, he served as a captain in the Army Air Corps in the advanced Physical Education Program. Towards the latter part of the war, he was in charge of reconditioning wounded vets at the Oakland Regional Hospital.

Shortly after, he came to Saint Mary's.

Next Fall, Lou will head a program which will commence as a lower division course. Each week there will be one hour of theory and two hours of lab-swimming and gymnastics.

The Administration is ordering sufficient equipment for the course, including parallel and horizontal bars, bucks, horses, and Swedish stall bars.

Purpose of program is to teach future coaches all phases of athletic activity, and particularly, body conditioning. For, as Lou stated, "If a school wants a football coach, they will choose, every time, the man who can coach all phases of the athletic program over the guy who knows only football."

This type of program was at Saint Mary's prior to the war, but was eventually dropped. It is now back in the curriculum, and credit for its being there, is due, mainly, to the efforts of Brother Lambert, Dean and Lou Peresyni.

The course will be of solid academic requirements, and as Peresyni says, "I intend to make it rough. And I guarantee to turn out men, who will be able to qualify for any coaching job at any school."

If the program is a success, and it will be, expansion plans call for upper division work, and a gymnastic team.

Another vital point propounded by Lou is that every student will also come out with sharper coordination and greater agility.

That's a big order, P. E. minors, make it yours.

ALUMNI HOMECOMING DAY

Upwards of 3000 people are expected to grace the walks and fields of the Academic City come Sunday for the annual fastivities of Alumni Homecoming.

Athletic interest is centered in the "Verducci Display," but the U.S.F.-Phoenix contest, starting at 1:00 p. m. should not be overlooked.

In that "final scrimmage under game conditions," Dick Cardoza will be on the public address system to keep the populace informed as to what and how many.

Other than the game officials, George DeKlotz will be the only other man on the field. "Deke" has been handling all the stats on the club; that is—what plays were called how many times, how many yards gained or lost, who missed what block, who made the tackle, etc.

Verducci stated that the quarterbacks have been instructed tc shoot the works, and emphasized that the quality and style of play on Sunday afternoon is just the way the squad will look in their first game of the season.

An added note: The contest will consist of four 20-minute quarters.

FILE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Saint Mary's is the only major school in the bay area in which tennis remains a minor sport. This year's team improved a good deal without a home court and necessary daily practice and with those courts assured of a repair job, the squad should shape up as "major" material.

The schedule making for the track squad was atrocious. There was three weeks of practice, then one meet; there was three weks of bad wather, thn four quick meets. Next year will be better?

Prior to the war, there were some 30 to 35 students in the students managers program. The senior manager in each sport, then as now, received a sweater and Block SM and made every road trip. Will the students back it up as well in '49, when the program will be reinstalled?

★ ★ ★ ★

OUCH! Twenty jayvee footballers, who played throughout the '48 football season were denied minor blocks for their season's efforts; and to top it off, they were told: "You have compensation in the right to intercollegiate football." I refer you to Dan Arzac's column IN REVIEW for details.

NO! The Phoenix walloped the Broncos 13-9, and with a barrage of 13 base knocks, with no errors!

WOW! In intramural softball play, frosh Dan Borzac from Nevada way pitched two 1-hitters in a row for the strong Mudville Sluggers.

AT LAST! Don Ferrarese, holding a previous one-hit shutout over the California frosh, pitched an excellent no-hit, no-run game against Emeryville High. I would have said sterling no-hitter only he walked about 14 men. Says Catcher John Sousa, "Don throws for the corners all the time, that's why he allows so many walks."

★ ★ ★ ★

A JOB WELL DONE

Special attention is directed to the Alumni sports page, set up in the main by assistant sports Editor Dick Cardoza.

Throughout the year, the staff has done a creditable job, and I hereby give special mention to Guy Gibbs, Howard Goddard, Mel Gray, Paul Ascenzi, Bob Fitzgerald and Dick Cardoza.

George Barnes 'T' Expert

By BOB FITZGERALD

When the second guessers stepped out to the sidelines about a month ago to watch the first day of spring practice, they noticed a young, dark-haired, handsome individual shouting at the backfield men to "get hot."

These second guessers looked this individual over and wondered if he was out for the team. They later learned that this individual with the "Hollywood" haircut (since cut to respectable proportions) was George Barnes, assistant spring backfield coach.

George, a sincere and personable fellow, was a product of Clark Shaunessey's expert T at the U. of Maryland.

He came here with a good record, having aided Clark at Maryland in 1946. Before that, however, George compiled a good record with Uncle Sam's 12th Air Force. While flying a Photo - Reconaissance P-38, in Italy for one year, George came home with a DFC and Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters.

SPAGHETTI BOWL

On Jan. 1, 1945, in Florence, Italy, George quarterbacked the 12th Air Force into the Spaghetti Bowl against the Fifth Army. According to George, thirty-five thousand people, together with two squadrons of planes for air protection, viewed the game.

Despite such names as Shanks and Buckowicz, pro players prior to the war, George's squad received a 20-0 blitz. Major Miller, who coached at Indiana U, was the coach.

Athlete of The Week

BILL BROWN

In the main, for walloping two home runs against the Broncos, but generally for solid hitting, the Collegian nominates Bill Brown as the ATHLETE OF THE WEEK.

Brown, a pre-dental student, is hitting well over the .300 mark. He bats left and is a pull hitter.

Bill graduated from San Mateo High where he made all-league honors, and he stems from a baseball family. His older brother, Bob, is presently the regular shortstop for the New York Yankees.

Twelve Gael Athletes to Graduate

Ray Clemons

A regular guard in '42, Ray came back to Saint Mary's after four years in the Navy to win a starting spot on the '46 team. After a year as defensive guard on the Green Bay Packers team last year, he has returned to complete his studies for a teaching profession. Ray, with three block SM's to his credit, was president of the block SM.

Leo Vercellez

Leo worked worked for thre years before he won a starting spot on the Gael football team. That was last fall when he began the Loyola game and quarterbacked the team to a 57-7 victory. He also holds down a spot in the campus bridge team. After graduation, he intends to return to his home in Los Angeles to enter business.

Denis O'Connor

For three years, Denny reigned supreme as the Saint Mary's quarterback. Football is not his only accomplishment however. He played shortstop on Coach Vergez's '46 nine and played a year of basketball. In all, he has won six letters in three major sports. Hopes to continue his career as a singer after his graduation from Saint Mary's.

John Odisio

John is probably the oldest of the group in Gael senlority, for beside his 1946 season as a Gael footballer, he won two blocks in football in '40 and '41. He is a mid-term graduate and hopes to go into the coaching profession. A quarterback in '41, he was changed to a fullback in '46. He served four years with the Air Force.

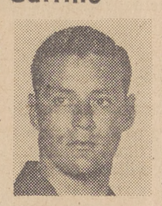
Ed Ryan

As a first year man on the Gael eleven, Ed won All-coast honors at end. He prepped at Vancouver, B. C., where he also attended a year of college. In 1946, he was one of the leading hitters on Johnny Vergez's baseball nine. Intends to go into a career of industrial chemistry, after a sojourn with the Pittsburg Steelers.

Henry Van Gieson

Hank has probably played every position on the Gael eleven for three years now. As a freshman in 1943 he played fullback. On his return from the Army in '45, he was recruited at tackle and in '46 he moved to end. A letter winner in basketball and track, Henry gave up football last year for a coaching position with the freshmen.

Frank Carrillo



Frank is a mid - term grad, who has an illustrious career as a Gael pig-skinner. He won a varsity block before the war as end. As a Marine, he played on Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific team, composed mostly of ex-Gaels.

After his return in '45 he was hampered by injuries. He now holds a contract with the professional Brooklyn Dodgers.

Claude Menkee

Claude first won his block as a guard on the '42 Gael team. His education and football career were delayed three years while he was in the Air Force. On his return to the Moraga campus, he again attained a starting position, a spot which he held for two years. Business is his career after his graduation next week.

Pete Bellani

Pete will well be remembered for his play on the Gael football teams both before the war and after. Winning a block in 1942 as a guard, Pete returned to the Moraga campus last year after three years in the Marine Corps. While a member of the team last year, he attained first string through his dynamic play. He will coach football at Saint Vincent's Hi in Vallejo.

Joe Suarez

After three years on the Army, Joe returned to the Moraga campus, captured a starting berth at guard and has not relinquished it for two seasons. As a Sophomore, he played on the '42 Gael team. Aside from football, he is a triple threat on the Gael bridge team. Intends to take up coaching as a profession.

Bill Zambresky

A fine defensive tackle in '42, Bill returned to Saint Mary's in 1945 to continue his studies and football career but injuries handicapped him. Bill played on that excellent Moraga Wolves team in basketball. The Wolves, a group of footballers, repeatedly won intramural basketball titles.

Tony Bilotti

Tony, another pre-war Gael footballer, won two blocks: in 1941 as second string center and in 1942 as a starting guard. Tony returned to St. Mary's last year and coached the Jayvees to a season of four wins, one loss and one tie. This year his Jayvees won three and tied two. A mid-year grad, he is continuing his studies in coaching.

Softball League Nears End

As the intramural softball schedule draws to a close, the race for first place in the league becomes more and more confused. At present there are four clubs with a possibility of winning top honors.

The teams still in the running are the Juniors, the Mudville Sluggers, the Metiors and the Dante Club.

JUNIORS LEAD

The Juniors, however, have the edge over the rest of the clubs, for they have yet to drop a contest, while all the others have lost one game each.

Besides having the honor of being champions, the winning team will be feted at a banquet to be given in their honor at Joe Molina's El Molina Inn in Lafayette.

The date of the festivity will probably be Thursday night, May 27.

League standings up to May 19:

	Won	Lost
Juniors	3	0
Mudville Sluggers	4	1
Meteors	3	1
Dante Club	3	1
Senators	2	1
Amadors	2	3
Sanctuary Society	1	4
Peraltans	0	3

Net Men Close Out 'Befouled' Season

Convinced that the elements were against them, the Saint Mary's netmen closed out the season on Tuesday just like they started it—rained out!

Following are the scores of the season's matches:

Varsity's Last Chance to Leave Cellar; Will They...

By DICK CARDOZA

Finishing the season in a week of postponed games, the Saint Mary's Phoenix host the U.S.C. Trojans here today and travel to Palo Alto tomorrow for a double-header with the Stanford Indians.

Southern Cal with the CIBA pennant vertually cinched will be top-heavy favorites to defeat the Gaels and sweep the '43 series. The Phoenix need a win to improve their standings in the league.

HOOD VS. CANFIELD

Wally Hood, effective Trojan right-hander, will hurl for the Southerners, and Carroll Canfield will take over pitching duties for the Gaels.

In two previous games, the Trojans edged the Phoenix 5-4 and the following day ran away with a 10-1 decision. In both games, homeruns by the Trojans were the deciding factor.

INDIAN DOUBLE-HEADER

On Saturday, the Indians and the Gaels will battle it out in two games to better their position as also-rans. Bob Smith and Dave Dahle will pitch for the boys from the farm while Bob Trestler and Jack Rial hurl for the Phoenix.

Lineups for today's game:

SAINT MARY'S	SOUTHERN CAL

Junior Nine Meet Indians

Tomorrow's clash between junior Gaels and the Stanford frosh marks the close of the '48 season for both nines. The game will be played at Palo Alto starting at 2:30 p.m.

This contest is the 24th of the season for the freshmen, who boast a record of 20 wins against 3 defeats.

Outstanding Frosh Players

Starting at the catchers position, there is John Souza and Jake Helmuth, who both show excellent promise, and combine "good" arms with health hitting.

Pitching has been no problem to coach Bill Kenworthy who has been able to call on these four men and with winning results, Don Ferrarese, Ken Figeroid, Mel Knezovich and Tom Lowney.

Infield and Outfield

The frosh infield shows talent and savvy with Larry Messinaqa the hot corner, Billy MacLaughlin and Bud Pellisier working key stone combination, and Tony Kotowski holding down the initial sack. Kotowski, a switch hitter, is strongest of this group at the plate.

Patrolling the outer gardens, there is Gene Klinger, Russ Petty, George MacDonald and Pete Clemente. Of these, Klinger is outstanding. The centerfielder is fast on his feet and possesses a fine throwing arm.

Phoenix Dump Broncos, 13-9

Amid the disturbing influences of Prune Valley last Friday night, the Saint Mary's Phoenix came from behind to nip the high-flying Santa Clara Broncos, 13-9.

Short score:

Gael Divot Diggers End Year With Win Over Broncos

By HOWARD GODDARD

Playing under a turbulent spring sky, Gael golfers defeated the prune belt Broncos 18-9 last Tuesday at the Richmond links. Thus the Gael squad brought down the curtain on a highly successful season. One of the squad members was heard to comment at the conclusion of the contest "The spring harvest down prune belt way will be considerably slower this season!" Packard Harrington shot low score on the Gael team with a 72, followed by Jack Cailleaud shooting 73, and Ron Patten who shot 73.

In match play Patten and Cailleaud teamed up to take 8½ points, Harrington and Murphy bled 7½ more points out of Santa Clara, as Jack Christnsen and Harold Murphy hit them for the two other points.

Individual scores of the squad were as follows:

Harrington	(72)	scored 2½ points
Cailleaud	(73)	scored 3 points
Patten	(75)	scored 2½ points
Murphy	(80)	scored 3 points
Christensen	(82)	scored 1 point
Franc	(82)	scored 0 points

The Gael golf team had one of the best records in the school's history, winning 10 matches and losing two. The season's record is as follows:

California	24	Saint Mary's	12
Modesto J.C.	6½	Saint Mary's	14½
San Jose	12	Saint Mary's	15
S.F. State	3½	Saint Mary's	23½

S.F. State	3	Saint Mary's	24
U.S.F.	4½	Saint Mary's	22½
Santa Clara	9	Saint Mary's	18

A Case Of Individuality!

WITH final examinations already in progress for some, and with the majority of students to receive them next week, it would be well to recall some of the responsibilities both the student and the teacher possesses.

In an educational report submitted some time ago concerning what students expected of their teachers, it was found that fairness rated top position on the list of demands made upon teachers.

Such things as style of teaching, amount of work assigned, and personality were secondary items.

The selection of fairness as a primary requisite for a teacher is a very significant fact. It indicates that students are aware of such trite things as favoritism, and do not respect the man who resorts to it as a medium of marking.

It also shows that students realize the importance of giving each man his due. It is not to be assumed that all teachers are "favoritism markers," but rather realized that the evil exists.

Just how a teacher should mark is not based on his knowledge of a subject. Indeed, it has been proven that a man who knows his subject does not necessarily make a good teacher.

Rather, a good teacher considers each student as an individual case; an individual problem, and gives that student the thing for which he is looking—fairness.

The student must also give consideration to the teacher. He must realize that the human element enters into all judgments. The personality angle tempers all analyses of students.

If both the student and the teacher could logically and fairly deal with each other, there would be no need of reminding them of their responsibilities.

It is to be hoped that the Spring term final examinations will see a genuine understanding of the problems which confront the student and the teacher.

A Case of Bad Management

THE Saint Mary's-Holy Names Tea Dance was a flop!

Insufficient publicity, lack of cooperation on the part of our class officers, and general dis-interest resulted in a sadly attended social affair.

There were approximately 75 girls to a total of 10 men at the Lake Merrit Hotel last Sunday. What makes the humiliation more painful is the fact that the Holy Names' Chairman had engaged a dance band, and had provided a large amount of food for the expected crowd. These items cost Holy Names College a total of $175.

A few days before the dance, Saint Mary's was contacted by the Holy Names' Chairman. She was asked whether or not 75 men would be present. If not, she would call the affair off. She was assured that a list of 75 names had been obtained, and that she need not worry further.

Those responsible for this mismanagement should extend an apology to Holy Names College. Holy Names has always supported our activities; has always contributed time and effort to see that these activities were successful.

The friendly relationship between the two colleges has been too long traditional to be lost through blunders on our part.

A Source of Inspiration

Welcome home Alumni!

Once again this year Homecoming Day comes to the forefront of College activities.

It is the day when the Alumni once more reaffirm their faith in their Alma Mater.

It is the day when old friendships are renewed; fond memories recalled. But these sentimentalities are not the important factor in Homecoming Day.

The important element is that students will be able to see for themselves the result of a Catholic higher education; will see the profuse array of emminent businessmen, priests, and a host of other professional and vocational successes.

The Alumni serve as a source of inspiration to the undergraduates who are so anxious to joint their ranks.

The Alumni will have ample opportunity this Sunday to take part in every phase of college life which they underwent as undergraduates.

Football, baseball, an educational hour, and an art exhibit are but a part of the activities scheduled.

We hope that the Alumni will long remember Homecoming Day, 1948.

The 1948 Gael---A Precedent

Today, the 1948 edition of the Gael yearbook will be put forth before the critical eyes of the public.

It is relatively certain that those reading the book will detect a number of grammatical and mechanical errors. But to those who will inspect the book with no intention whatsoever, except to find flaws, will be the persons unfamiliar with the Gael story.

It is a story of hard work; of fighting campus pessimists; and of assembling material dating back to 1941. These are some of the factors which were involved in the publication of this yearbook.

Last year, all efforts to publish the Gael went down before sensitive individuals who were unwilling to gamble with student money. They argued that it was unfair risking student money merely to put out "another" book.

But this year has seen a courageous few set a precedent which had to be set. For this, the Collegian offers a note of commendation.

Therefore, when you read the Gael, take into account all the factors involved. Reflect that this has been the first Gael in seven years, and that it was put out for the sake of renewing an old tradition.

By BILL STOUT

Ten pounds of peanut brittle to Dan Arzac for convincing everyone that he was a true "Frog" last Monday. . . . What vast talents—a statesman, linguist, political boss—I wonder if he can play football . . . Hmmm??

An authority informs us that the Amadors should be the greatest intramural team to ever hit Saint Mary's. . . . What other softball squad can boast a million-dollar outfield? (Mike Tobin and Francis X, Kenny, that is.)—Pfuii on you, Hank Greenberg—you ain't so valuable!

All of this last semester I have been dodging certain people because of my continual harping on subjects which my strange little mind considered important. Today I said to myself: "Bill, maybe some people don't like you for the things you have said. Why not say something nice?" So I thought up a sentence which would appease anybody. . . . It goes like this:

"The chow, the electricity, the Navy Monument, the Arzac machine, the janitors, the bugs, the absence of window screens and Brother Austin, Brother Alvan, John Mulshenock, Herb Reynolds and "Tony" and Sam are wonderful and I love 'em, each and all except "Pete" Petersen—Why leave this June with enemies? "Make Everybody Happy". That's my motto.

A new attitude toward politics was formed by Art Peterson during the recent Junior elections. Big Arthur didn't have one poster or sheet of literature printed for his campaign. . . . Matter of fact he didn't even have a campaign. When asked if he didn't feel guilty about Jenevein, who had spent quite a sum on post cards, etc., Peterson replied, "Yes, I do think Jenevein deserved to win; I almost wish that he HAD, he worked so hard, and wanted the vice-presidency very much." —Dewey, Stassen and Taft, take heed, this guy may have something.

Remember the slips of paper that were handed to us in class the other morning, which we were asked to fill with the names of three prospective Saint Mary's students? One of the sheets had three names on it all right, they were:

Tony Martin,
"Bones" Remmer and
Richard Hickey.

The Chrome Cuspidor to Rod McDonald (The friendly medic who is also the campus airline ticket agent) for missing the biggest deal of the year—Practically the whole Hawaii Club is going home via the wild blue yonder.

Somebody around here has a little ambition it seems. Even after the Brickpile collapsed in such a big ugly heap, Bill Kelly still has the courage to plan a humor magazine for next year. With proper cooperation it could be a very good publication. It will be called "The Raven."—Don't give it the bird. Yuk Yuk! —Okay, I apologize.

Congrats to "Little" Walt for making the "Gael" a reality. It took a lot of work and we appreciate it.

The biggest affair of the season might easily be the big boat ride tonight. Al Ghilarducci put down his cigarette long enough to tell us that he thought he would go. I can see the S. F. headlines now—"HUNDREDS DROWN AS STEAMER CAPSIZES IN BAY."

Moraga Musings

SOMETHING NEW! SOMETHING DIFFERENT!

Billy Kelly has a "new idea" . . . he believes in individualism for the students . . . and all this will come out in his booklet next semester somewhere along the line he has picked up the idea that the students should have more "say so" about the affairs of the student body. . . . Silly idea.

THREE CHEERS

Go to Bill Spain whose generous nature makes him a good target for a loan. . . . He'll learn. Seriously though he's a fellow that should get ahead. . . . He needs one.

Let us not forget Allahwerdi Aboul-Hossien Farmanfarmaian (Whew), who came all the way from Persia just to come to St. Mary's. How he ever found St. Mary's the Muser will never know.

A doff of the cap to "Marty" Fantasia for he was seen all dressed up in a tux at breakfast last Saturday morning. . . . Could it be that he just got in . . . or is he trying to start a new style?

The Bystander

By PAT HENDERSON

It is with mingled feelings of regret and joy that I write this, my last column for the St. Mary's Collegian. Looking back upon the year we have just finished I think that in many cases we made significant advances along with some setbacks of course. However, as Brother Austin told the Ex-Council in their last meeting of the year, "We all must expect mistakes in the process of living. Mistakes may even be profitable if we learn from them."

Probably the most significant statement in the whole council meeting Tuesday was Brother Austin's declaration that he will further the relationship of Student Body and Administration by personally looking in upon the Ex Council from time to time. In my opinion this is a great step forward and every effort should be exerted by the student body to facilitate the attendance of Brother Austin or his delegate at the important Ex Council meetings of the year. This type of thing will stimulate the spirit of cooperation between Administration and the student body. Finally, let me wish the new student body officers and their respected advisor, Brother Albert, all the success possible in what portends to be a very active year in the history of the St. Mary's Student Body.

Now that my collegiate career (barring all unforeseen circumstances) is drawing to a close, I might say in the words of Leoncavallo's Clown, "La comedia e finita." Although I hope that my Comedy will not finish with quite the same dramatic impact of the famous clown, may I say that it has had its moments.

It's strange when you consider how in retrospect the past becomes rosier, our little crises less tragic and more amusing, like the sudden demise of my scholastic career some six years ago. (In all fairness I must admit I helped it to die in one way or another.) However before the end came and the authorities put the final double whammy on it there were moments of greatness.

When I think of those days my mind inevitably turns toward the highly spectacular career of John "Jughead" Malone, the partner of my adversity and my Godfather. He blew in just after I had returned to St. Mary's in the Fall of 1946. I was waiting in the traditional corner of the Casa which has constituted our little rendezvous for several years awaiting the August Arrival, when Lo! it happened. Lassie came home.

After a short sojourn at the Casa and a somewhat boisterous arrival upon the campus at an undetermined hour which entailed among other things restraining Jughead from awakening all those faculty members he felt might want to see him in memory of our pigs-in-the-parlor days he related the Odessy of his life since 1942 with illustrations.

As far as I could see it consisted mostly of gorgeous looking women in Gold Lamee evening gowns sitting with Malone in the Stork Club or some other equally posh jernt. It was a long way from the "Brass Rail" and the "Moraga Inn" and the days when we pooled our money and had enough for two 12-ounce glasses of beer (10 cents too).

The next day St. Mary's played Cal and with 80,000 available seats in Memorial Stadium and over 100,000 fans looking for seats Malone showed up at the game on the 50-yard line. So help me I don't know how he does it. After the game I saw him briefly as he walked from the field of our defeat with two Cal Cuties valiantly waving the old Blue and Gold. Versatile is the world I believe.

Jughead might well stand as a model for those who aspire to Collegiate greatness in the field of character. Malone remains as the landmark of an era but generally it was an era of moderation not excess. To attain character one exercised his wits not his pocketbook.

Junior varsity football awards, for which 24 men are eligible, were flatly turned down this week. It is not often in a Catholic college that justice is replaced by penny-pinching. Saint Mary's, with its declared program of a new humanism, is hardly the place to institute the abandonment of principles.

It is my belief that this decision was rendered by the College Administration Officer without consulting the Brother President, the Department of Athletics, or the Board of Athletic Control. This column is an open appeal to those authorities, as well as to the Alumni Association, to the Associated Students, and to public opinion.

HAVE WE A JV TEAM

This decision was given on the following premises: a separate junior varsity does not exist, the men involved have sufficient reward in being allowed to play at all in intercollegiate games, and the team in question suits up for all local varsity games. Since all of these premises are false, it is obvious that the conclusion is false.

To claim that we do not have a separate JV team is to quibble over terms. Whether we call it by this name or by any other, the fact stands that the students and the public, to say nothing of the other schools contracted, were led to believe that our JV team was playing. If a separate organization does not exist, then Saint Mary's is deliberately misleading the public.

Did the men who played JV football have sufficient reward in being allowed to play other collegiate teams? Such a claim is sheer nonsense. We keep a JV team on hand as fodder for the varsity; without it, the varsity could not have the training it needs. The varsity and the freshman teams receive awards, in spite of the fact that they, too, have the honor of playing other schools. Why make the JVs an exception?

WHERE IS JUSTICE

As for the last claim, it is College Administration Officer. The JVs do not suit up for all local varsity games, or any of them, for that matter; they sit in the stands, like other students. The JVs train separately in the fall, have a separate coach, and play a separate schedule. If one of their number passes on to the varsity, he is congratulated by his fellows as having been promoted.

If the students who participate in intercollegiate athletics have any sense of cohesiveness, that loyalty which is demanded in athletes, they will refuse further participation until their fellows receive justice. The cream of the crop, which is the Block SM Society, should be first in pressing the case. In the meantime, the Administration should understand that no cooperation with the student government is possible so long as its considered acts allowed to be arbitrarily vetied by a minor official.

The list of eligibles for JV award was drawnup by a student committee, which based its recommendations on information garnered from other Bay Area colleges, the former JV coach, and the Office of Public Relations. The report was approved by the Department of Athletics. It is my sincere belief, and that of all interested Gaels, that the veto of the College Administration Officer should be over-ridden by higher, competent authority. To refuse the JVs the recognition they deserve is to compromise not only justice, but prudence.

College Comments

By FRANCIS X. SANCHEZ

As the last few days of the Spring semester draw closer, there seems to be an unusually great amount of hustle and bustle on our thriving little campus. The Saturday nights are filled with cold beer and pretzels, the Sundays with hot cokes and sandwiches, and the rest of the week with the inevitable enthusiastic chatter about plans for the coming Summer vacation.

But throughout all this, there is, strangely enough, a great deal of talk concerning the coming Fall semester.

The new courses being offered will undoubtedly attract a great number of new students, and allow a large number to remain.

It all adds up to the fact that although social events and examinations are pretty well filling out our little world, we can't seem to throw off the anxiety of waiting to see what will happen in the fast-approaching Fall semester.

Another subject of discussion is the draft question. Will the ranks of shuffling students give way to the ranks of marching "boots"?

The way the situation looks now, a guess either way is safe. But if the wrong thing happens, there is likely to be a multitude of unhappy ex-students peeling spuds!

Those of us who missed the joint Tea Dance with Holy Names last Sunday at the Lake Merritt Hotel apparently did themselves out of quite an affair.

Latest reports have it that the young ladies were not at all pleased with the small showing from St. Mary's.

On the other hand, the Gaels present did not at all mind the fact that they were outnumbered by the fair, young things. Don't fret girls. It's just that that Spring feeling hasn't reached Moraga yet. . .!

Well, the night of May 28 we'll find out if the Drama Society has or has not been wasting time on rehearsals these last few weeks.

The general opinion is that they have bitten off more than they can chew, but I personally would definitely not be surprised to see the production come through with a great degree of success.

OTHELLO is no "cinch" in any man's language, especially by a comparatively inexperienced group; but learning that they will be led by a professional actress, and seeing the hard work put into rehearsals, I feel confident that the Drama Society will meet with their duly earned success.

. . . And so, with this last edition of the COLLEGIAN written, edited, and distributed, we bid St: Mary's a premature farewell.

Soon our struggling seniors will be men of the world, losing hair, meeting expenses, and having babies.

Let us hope that they don't forget what a grand gesture an occasional contribution from the alumni is to some floundering campus cause.

And soon the Brothers will be breathing regularly again. Perhaps not as evenly as before, but, at least, without the constant dread of firecrackers and fire hoses.

But what of the "civic center"? Who will volunteer to remain there throughout the summer months, until its staunch supporters return once more with their glorified and unquenching thirsts?

So, for three months the little valley will be silent. All in all, the year has been a hectic and good one. We've complained and praised, and insulted and glorified, but throughout it all we have not lost sight of the real meaning of our being here. And that meaning will not be lost over the summer months, but will be among us once again when we meet in September.

Last week, in Gael Gossip, it was reported that Val McKeever and Fred Mullen started the drive for a student manager system. Contrarily, the administration, abetted by Joe Verucci, drew up the system.
